

02/06 - A Saw That Senses

The sawfish slowly searched the sandy bottom. A small shrimp was hiding among the pebbles. Its long snout helped it find food.

Did you know? Sensory organs on the saw detect the weak electrical fields produced by other animals.