

06/06 - An Adult Seen from Below

In time, the pup grew into an adult sawfish. It glided calmly above us, showing its pale underside. From below, we could see its mouth and gill slits.

Did you know? A sawfish is a ray. It has five pairs of gill slits on its underside. Its eyes are on top of its head.